

Trinity Sunday.

27-5-18.

A community of love.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity, which we celebrate today, is a celebration of the mystery of God as a community of love.

Throughout his life Jesus spoke about God as his Father, himself as God's only Son, and the Holy Spirit as Counsellor. In this Jesus reveals the mystery of the Trinity to us, not only to let us know the truth about God, but also to reveal to us the truth about ourselves – as to what is our origin, - where is our destiny, and how to attain it.

Love is the binding force of the three persons of the Trinity; so when we love, we share in that community of love, which is the living God.

This celebration of the abundance of God's love, therefore, is an opportunity for appreciating what God has done and continues to do for us.

It also calls us to respond to this love of God, which is poured into our hearts by Christ and the Holy Spirit, and invites us to live the consequences of that love, and thereby to look forward to the day when we shall share in the glory of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
